Duntower Pork

As a major supplier of Argentinean pork products in the international market, DUNTOWER PORK has built a longstanding reputation for delivering quality and helping to successfully navigate customers throughout the entire buying process. As a result of a policy of trust with our customers and thanks to an excellent team, we have become a benchmark in the sector.

The scope of our business encompasses the production of high quality porcine breeders, the deboning and processing of pork meat and preparation of cured products, with a rigorous overall control of all the processes, from genetics to packaging.

We operate within numerous meat markets internationally and have the ability to produce and supply product in line with excellent standards, plant accreditations and feed schemes. The meat is delivered upon the customer's expectations, requests and specifications, while fully guaranteeing their traceability.
